

Rice Family Foundation Workshop
 Empires of the Wind: Exploration of the United States Pacific West Coast
DAY 1

Saturday, November 1st

Time	Location	Event	Faculty/Scholars	Notes
8:30-9:00 AM	McKinney Deck: Upper deck aboard Ferry Boat Berkeley	Introductions and daily workshop schedule	Participants & Staff	Coffee and Tea and breakfast baked good served.
9:00-10:00 AM	McKinney Deck	"Sailing with Cabrillo from a medieval world to the modern: How maps changed the world view by changing the view of the world" Lecture and Discussion	Ray Ashley	Opening lecture that analyzes changes in geographic, cultural, and social perceptions from maps of the world.
10:00-10:15 AM		Break
10:15-10:45 AM	McKinney Deck	Common Core Pedagogy	Emily Schell	A brief introduction to how participants will use the content of the workshop and align lessons to Common Core.
10:45-12:00 PM	McKinney Deck	Who are the Kumeyaay?	Stan Rodriquez	Discussion about Native Americans and our local tribes at the time of exploration.
12:00-1:00		Lunch		Lunch is provided
1:15-2:00 PM	McKinney Deck	Wind, Silver, and the Opening of the Pacific 1492-1740.	David Ringrose	How the quest for Asian luxuries brought an understanding of maritime wind patterns and the first European contact with California.
2:00-2:10		Break
2:10-2:55 PM	McKinney Deck	Vitamin, C, Clocks, Reform and California, 1740- 1820.	David Ringrose	How did science, technology, nutrition, and European rivalries prompt the colonization of California? This lecture will show how the understanding of science, technology, and nutrition made the Pacific more accessible.
3:00-3:30 PM	McKinney Deck	First Encounter Demonstration Activity	Susan Sirota	Participants will have the opportunity to experience firsthand a "first encounter" with the demonstration of this activity program developed by NOAA.
3:30-5:00 PM	McKinney Deck	Reflection and Curriculum Development	Emily Schell	This presentation will help make the workshop activities applicable to classroom instruction. On the first day we will divide the group into their work groups for the workshop.

Rice Family Foundation Workshop
Empires of the Wind: Exploration of the United States Pacific West Coast

DAY 2

Saturday, November 8th

Time	Location	Event	Faculty/Scholars	Notes
8:30-9:00 AM	Upper deck aboard Ferry Boat Berkeley	Introductions and daily workshop schedule	Workshop participants, faculty and staff	Coffee and breakfast baked good served
9:00-10:15 AM	McKinney Deck	Lecture and Discussion: "Whales, Furs, Hides & Gold"	Iris Engstrand	Participants will learn about the west coast industries that drove the country to the Pacific in search of fortunes from: Whales, Furs, Hides & Gold. Conflict and clashes over resource and land make this period turbulent both on the waves and shore.
10:15-10:30 AM		Break
10:30-12:35 PM	McKinney Deck	Lecture and Discussion: "Americans in the Pacific"	Bruce Linder	This Lecture discusses the United States involvement in the Pacific from the China trade and the search of furs to the maritime role of California in the US Civil War.
12:35-1:40 PM		Lunch		Lunch is Provided
2:00-4:00 PM	Pilot Boat and Museum Tours	Participants will tour the museum's ships and take a Pilot Boat Ride.	Staff	Pilot Boat times will be: 2:00 & 3:00 Tours are rotated between Pilot times.
4:00 PM	McKinney Deck	Reflection and Curriculum Development	Emily Schell	